

	CITY OF OAK POINT DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
	Code of Conduct
	Effective Date: 05.01.2012
	Approved: M. Shackelford M. Shackelford

I. POLICY

The Oak Point Department of Public Safety and the public expect all personnel to maintain high standards of appearance and conduct. The goal of the department is to exhibit and perform to the highest level of professionalism possible in any given situation.

II. PURPOSE

To define departmental expectations for on and off-duty personal behavior. This order applies to all employees/members sworn and non-sworn, paid or volunteer. For the purpose of this order the terms employee and member are synonymous.

III. INTERGRITY

All members shall display the highest level of integrity in all dealings of their life. Understanding that we are looked upon as DPS members 24 hours a day because of our association with a chosen profession.

IV. GENERAL DUTIES

- A. All members shall, adhere to the laws of the United States, the laws of the State of Texas, and all local ordinances, and within jurisdictional limits, protect life and property, according to the rules, regulations, and general orders of the department. Members must know that when they act under color of law, they are enforcing the law according to statutes, written administrative guidance in the department, ordinances, common usage, and custom. Further, members shall exhibit good moral character in the administration of their duties according to departmental orders.

- B. The department maintains the right to establish oral and written orders to govern and control the efficiency, effectiveness, and safe operation of law enforcement. Members shall be given a copy of the rules and expectations of professional conduct prior to assuming duties.

- C. Management reserves the prerogative to discipline personnel for violations of the rules listed in this order as well as violations of all City, departmental orders and directives. The decision to discipline and the measure of discipline employed depend on the rule or law violated the consequences of the employee's actions, but an employee's prior history and experience, may be considered.
  - 1. Nothing in these rules and regulations limits the charges against members because the alleged act or omission does not specifically appear in this manual, other order of the department, or in the laws or ordinances of which the department is responsible to enforce.
  - 2. No member of the department shall be a member of any organization which advocates the violent overthrow of the government of the United States, the State of Texas, or any unit of local government, or participate in any organization which has a purpose, aim, objective, or any practices which are contrary to the obligations of a law enforcement officer under these rules and regulations.
  - 3. Members of the department have every right to feel secure in their conversations and confidences placed in other members of the department. Members also have the right to not be manipulated to saying something or portions of a conversation being taken out of context for unethical purposes. Therefore members of this department are prohibited from recording either audio or video, by any means, a supervisor, other officer, employee, or city employee without the express written consent of the Director of Public Safety. Any violation of this order will result in immediate termination.

D. Obedience to Rules of Conduct, laws and orders

All members shall be governed by the following general rules of conduct. Violation of any of these rules by any member of the department shall be considered sufficient cause for disciplinary action.

- 1. Obedience to Laws. Members shall abide by the laws of the United States and the State of Texas as well as the ordinances of the City of Oak Point.
- 2. Adherence to Departmental Rules. Members shall abide by the rules of the City Personnel Manual, and the Code of Conduct and their respective Procedure Manual as well as other properly issued internal directives of the Department.

3. Applicability of Rules. Certain rules may not apply in specific DPS assignments and this will be specifically authorized in writing by supervisors. However in all instances Members may be held accountable and required to justify their actions.
4. Insubordination. Members shall promptly obey all lawful orders and directions given by supervisors. The failure or deliberate refusal of members to obey such orders shall be deemed insubordination and is prohibited. Flouting the authority of a supervisor by displaying obvious disrespect or by disputing their orders shall likewise be deemed insubordination.
5. Issuance of Unlawful Orders. No commanding or supervisory employee shall knowingly or willfully issue an order that violates a federal or state law, a city ordinance, or a departmental rule or policy.
6. Obedience to Unjust or Improper Orders. If an employee receives an order he believes is unjust or contrary to a departmental General Order or rule, he must first obey the order to the best of his ability and then may appeal the order to the Director.
7. Obedience to Unlawful Orders. No employee is required to obey an order that is contrary to the laws of the United States or the State of Texas or the ordinances of the City of Oak Point. If an employee receives an unlawful order, they shall report in writing the full facts of the incident and their actions to the Director.
8. Conflicts of Orders. If an employee receives an order that conflicts with one previously given them by a supervisor, the employee receiving the order shall respectfully point this out to the supervisor who gave the second order. If the supervisor giving the second order does not change the order in a way that eliminates the conflict, the second order shall stand and shall be the responsibility of the second supervisor. If the second supervisor so directs, the second order shall be obeyed first. Orders shall be countermanded only when immediately necessary for the good of the department.

E. Attention to Duty

1. Performance of Duty. Members shall be attentive to their duties at all times, and shall perform all duties assigned to them, even if such duties are not specifically assigned to them in any departmental rules or procedures manual.

2. Duty of Supervisors. Supervisors will enforce the rules, regulations, and policies of the Department. They will not permit, or otherwise fail to prevent, violations of the law, departmental rules, policies or procedures. They will report violations of departmental rules, policies, or procedures to their immediate superior without delay. Where possible, they will actively prevent such violations or interrupt them as necessary to ensure efficient, orderly operations.
3. Conduct and Behavior. Members whether on-duty or off-duty shall follow the ordinary and reasonable rules of good conduct and behavior and shall not commit any act in an official or private capacity tending to bring reproach, discredit, or embarrassment to their profession or the department. 1. Fellow Members. Members shall treat other members of the department in a courteous, civil and respectful manner.
2. Interfering with Cases or Operations. Members shall not interfere with cases assigned to others. Members shall not interfere with the work or operations of any unit of the department or the work or operations of other governmental agencies. Members against whom a complaint has been made shall not directly or indirectly contact or attempt to contact for any reason, the complainant, witness or any other persons related to the case.
3. Requests for Agency Assist/Mutual Aid. No member of this department or the department itself shall refuse any reasonable request for mutual aid or agency assistance.
4. Offering of Agency Assistance or Mutual Aid. No employee shall offer any assistance or aid which has not been specifically requested by another agency. If an outside agency needs our assistance they are required to request it. All personnel who leave the city on agency assists are required to return to the city as soon as the request is fulfilled. Loitering in another jurisdiction is strictly prohibited.

G. Restrictions on Behavior

1. Interfering with Department Operations. Members shall not concern themselves with or become involved in matters which do not pertain to them directly or which pertain to another branch of the department. Members shall not question procedural issues of other branches of the department, but are required to bring any concerns to the Director of DPS.
2. Disclosure of Departmental Information or Memos. Members are prohibited from relaying or discussing with non-departmental personnel any issues which pertain to the operation of the department, to include personnel issues. Should a member become concerned regarding an action of the department supervisors, they are to report this concern to the City Manager directly.
3. Disruptive Activities. Members shall not perform any action that tends to disrupt the performance of official duties and obligations of members of the department or which tend to interfere with or subvert the reasonable supervision or proper discipline of members of the department.
4. Soliciting and Accepting Gifts and Gratuities. Members of the Department may not accept any reward, gratuity, gift or other compensation for any service performed as a result of or in conjunction with their duties as members of the department regardless of whether the service was performed while said persons were on or off-duty. Members shall not solicit any gift, gratuity, loan, present, fee or reward for personal gain.
5. Soliciting and Accepting Gifts from Suspects and Prisoners. Members are strictly prohibited from soliciting or accepting any gift, gratuity, loan, fee or other item of value, or from lending or borrowing, or from buying or selling anything of value from or to any suspect, prisoner, defendant or other person involved in any case, or other persons of ill repute, or professional bondsmen, or tow company employee or other persons whose vocations may profit from information obtained from the police department.
6. Reporting Bribe Offers. If an officer receives a bribe offer, he shall make a written report to his commanding officer.
7. Accepting Gifts from Subordinates. Members shall not receive or accept any gift or gratuity from subordinates, other than customary celebratory times such as holidays or birthdays.

8. Soliciting Special Privileges. Members shall not use their official positions or identification to solicit special privileges for themselves or others, such as free admission to places of amusement, discounts on purchases, or free or discounted meals or refreshments.
9. Personal Use of DPS Power. Members shall not use their DPS powers to resolve personal grievances (e.g., those involving the officer, family members, relatives, or friends) except under circumstances that would justify the use of self-defense, actions to prevent injury to another person, or when a serious offense has been committed that would justify an arrest and they would by law be required to do so. In all other cases, members shall summon on-duty police personnel and notify the Director in cases where there is personal involvement that would reasonably require law enforcement intervention.
10. Giving Testimonials and Seeking Publicity. Members representing themselves as members of the Department shall not give testimonials or permit their names or photographs to be used for commercial advertising purposes. Members also shall not seek personal publicity either directly or indirectly in the course of their employment.
11. Soliciting Business. Members shall not, while on-duty, solicit in any manner. This includes but is not limited to soliciting for subscriptions, sell books, papers, tickets, merchandise or other items of value nor collect or receive money or items of value for any personal gain to themselves or others. Civilian members are not allowed to actively participate (e.g., make political speeches, pass out campaign or other political literature, write letters, sign petitions, actively and openly solicit votes) in political campaigns while on-duty.
22. Improper Release of Information. Members shall not communicate to any person any information concerning operations, activities, or matters of Department business, the release of which is prohibited by law or which may have an adverse impact on the public's perception of the department or member safety of this department or another.
23. Seeking Personal Preferment. Members shall not solicit petitions, influence or seek the intervention of any person outside the department for purposes of personal preferment, advantage, transfer, advancement, or promotion for themselves or for any other person.

24. Criticism of the Department. Members shall neither publicly nor at internal official meetings criticize or ridicule the department or its policies, city officials or other members by speech, writing, or other expression, where such speech, writing, or other expression is defamatory, obscene, unlawful, undermines the effectiveness of the department, interferes with the maintenance of discipline, or is made with reckless disregard for truth or falsity.
25. Operation and Use of DPS Radios. Operation and use of DPS radios is restricted to authorized and official business. Personal conversations, or using vulgar, sarcastic or obscene language, or making unnecessary sounds are not permitted.
26. Use of Racial Jokes and Slurs. No employee shall engage in any form of speech likely to be construed as a racial, ethnic or religious slur or joke, whether in the presence of the public or of other members.
27. Use of Force. Members shall use only that amount of force reasonably necessary to accomplish their mission.
28. Indebtedness to Subordinates. Supervisors shall not become indebted to their immediate subordinates.
29. Personal Relationships Prohibited with Certain Persons. Members shall not become personally involved or develop a personal or social relationship with a victim, suspect, or witness nor develop a personal relationship with any member of this or any other department which that relationship may affect the performance or safety of any member of this department.
30. Duty to be Kind, Courteous, and Patient. Members shall at all times be courteous, kind, patient, and respectful in dealing with the public. Members shall be respectful of all members of the community in the discharge of their official duties. When addressed, members shall avoid answering questions in a short or abrupt manner, and shall not use harsh, coarse, violent or profane language unless such language or communications is being used as a level of force to gain compliance.

H. Identification and Recognition

1. Giving Name and Badge Number. Members shall give their name, badge number and if necessary department to any person requesting such facts unless doing so would jeopardize the successful completion of an assignment.
2. Carrying Official Identification. All members will carry their official identification on or about their persons while on-duty.

3. Personal Cards. Members are not permitted to have or use personal cards showing their connection to the department if such cards bear any information not directly pertaining to their work as department members.
4. Exchange, Alteration or Transfer of Badge. An employee's issued badge shall not be altered or exchanged between members or transferred to another person except by the Director. Members retiring or resigning will not be permitted to retain their badge when doing so will hamper normal operations of the department. All badges must be issued.
5. Plainclothes Members – Identification. A member shall neither acknowledge nor show recognition of a police officer in civilian clothes unless that officer first addresses the member.

I. Maintenance of Property

1. Use of City Property or Service. Members shall not use or provide any city equipment or service other than for official city business.
2. Responsibility for City Property. Members shall be responsible for the proper care and use of department property and equipment assigned to or used by them and shall promptly report to a supervisor any loss, damage, destruction, or defect pertaining to such equipment or property. Members may in the event of damage or neglect of such property be required to repair and or purchase their own equipment in lieu of city issued equipment. If required to do so an employee may not report to work until such a purchase has been made and approved by the Director.
3. Departmental Vehicles. Members shall operate department vehicles and other equipment in such a manner as to avoid injury to persons or damage to property. Whenever a vehicle is involved in an accident, the operator shall notify a supervisor immediately. Under no circumstances shall an officer investigate his or her own accident. The Texas Department of Public Safety or Sheriff's Department will be requested to investigate department involved accidents.
4. Reporting Damage. At the beginning of shift, members shall examine any vehicle and equipment assigned to them and report any operational deficiencies, damage, or defects to the director. Failure to report damage or defects creates the presumption that the employee inspected the vehicle or equipment and found no damage or defects. The employee, in this case, shall be held responsible for the damage.
5. Responsibility for Private Property. Members are responsible for reasonably protecting private property or equipment that has come into their possession by reason of their office against loss, damage, or destruction.

6. Care of Quarters. Members shall keep the DPS offices, lockers and desks neat, clean and orderly.
7. Property and Evidence. Members shall not convert to their own use, manufacture, conceal, falsify, destroy, remove, tamper with, or withhold any property or evidence held in connection with an investigation or other official action except in accordance with established procedures. Any property or evidence coming into the possession of an employee shall be submitted to the property room immediately following the call if reasonable but in all cases prior to the end of shift.
8. Alteration or Modification of DPS Equipment. Members shall not use any equipment that does not conform to departmental policy or specifications. All equipment shall be carried and utilized only as issued and/or authorized, and no changes, alterations, modifications or substitutions shall be made to such equipment unless approved by the Director.

J. Relationship with Courts and Attorneys

1. Attendance in Court. Members shall arrive on time for all required court appearances and be prepared to testify. Each member shall be familiar with the laws of evidence and shall testify truthfully on any matter.
2. Recommending Attorneys or Bondsmen. Members shall not suggest, recommend, advise or counsel the retention of a specific attorney or bondsmen to any person (except relatives) coming to their attention as a result of official business.
3. Testifying for a Defendant. Any employee subpoenaed or requested to testify for a criminal defendant or against the City or against the interests of the department in any hearing or trial shall immediately notify the Director.
4. Interviews with Attorneys. Interviews between an employee and a complainant's attorney about a case arising from the member's employment by the department shall be done in the presence of or with the knowledge and consent of the Director, and or department legal counsel or prosecutor.
5. Assisting and Testifying in Civil Cases. Members shall not serve civil-process papers nor render assistance in civil cases except as required by law. No employee shall volunteer to testify in civil actions.

6. Notice of Lawsuits against Members. Members who have had a suit filed against them which may result in their missing work or an unfavorable image of the department shall immediately notify the Director in writing and furnish a copy of the complaint as well as a full and accurate account of the circumstances in question.
7. Notice of Arrest or Citation. Members who have become the subject of a citation, arrest action, investigation, or any contact with the police in an official manner in any other jurisdiction shall immediately notify the Director.
8. Arrest of departmental employee. If an officer has probable cause to arrest a sworn member of our department, the officer shall first contact the Director to review and confirm probable cause. In some cases, the department may wish to obtain a warrant against the suspect officer. Some occasions may however demand an immediate custodial arrest.

K. Expectation of Privacy

1. Members shall have no expectation of personal privacy in such places as lockers, desks, departmentally owned vehicles, file cabinets, computers, or similar areas that are under the control and management of this law enforcement agency. While this agency recognizes the need for members to occasionally store personal items in such areas, members should be aware that these and similar places may be inspected or otherwise entered—to meet operational needs, internal investigatory requirements, or for other reasons—at the direction of the Director or his or her designee.
2. No member of this agency shall maintain files or duplicate copies of official agency files in either manual or electronic formats at his or her place of residence or in other locations outside the confines of this agency without express permission of the Director.

L. Performance Prohibitions

1. As appropriate, disciplinary action may also be taken for violation of the following orders or the following reasons:
  - a. Incompetent or inefficient performance or dereliction of duty;
  - b. Insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public or any act of omission or commission of similar nature which discredits or injures the public. (Insubordination may also consist of direct, tacit, or constructive refusal to do assigned work.)
